L&T EduTech, the upskilling vertical of Larsen & Toubro Limited, aims to bridge the gap between industry and academia by providing skill-based programs, courses, and certifications designed to meet industry demands.

And

Stella Mary's College of Engineering (SMCE)

Stella Mary's College of Engineering (SMCE) is an autonomous institution established in 2012, having its Registered Office at Aruthenganvilai, Kallukatti Junction, Azhikal Post, Kanyakumari - 629202, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as "SMCE" or Second Party. Stella Mary's College of Engineering is committed to fostering academic excellence and innovation by equipping students with strong technical knowledge and practical skills. With a focus on quality education, research, and holistic development, the institution strives to nurture future-ready professionals who can leverage technology for positive societal impact. The college also contributes to social and economic development by promoting accessible and industry-relevant technical education.

L&T EduTech has launched its MOOCS Platform, aimed at democratizing learning for college students by making quality education flexible and affordable. This initiative seeks to bridge the gap between academia and industry, providing students with opportunities to gain relevant skills through a wide array of industry-aligned self-paced online courses.

L&T EduTech and the institution hereby agree to collaborate to offer L&T EduTech's courses through its MOOCS Platform. This collaboration aims to deliver quality, industry-relevant self-paced online courses to students, helping them enhance their skills and employability. Through this partnership, L&T EduTech will provide access to its platform, which includes a wide array of courses and pathways, designed to align with current industry trends and requirements.

Both parties agree to collaborate on the terms mentioned in the annexure(s) (Order form).

This Agreement is being signed at 12th June on 2026 and will be effective immediately upon execution by both parties.
